For the second time within a week Frank Kramse last aight beat lyer Lawson, the Salt Lake City rider, in a match race. The event, took place on the senger track in Machann Square Garden, and after one of the hardest founit wose between pedal-pushers ever witnessed in this country Kramse succeeded in winning the second and third heat of the race, which entitled him to the race.

At the report of the pistol in the first heat, Lawson, who had the pole, started off with a runh and took the lead. The riders watched each other closely, and when the bell rains for the last lap thawson started off at terrific speed and crossed the line the winner by a few inches.

At the second heat. This time Kramser was allowed by the judges, and when the bell rains for the last lap that one second heat. This time Kramser was allowed the pole.
